Presentation: Becoming a more effective Leader

This presentation will cover how important having a sense of self awareness is when it comes to leading others. Key points will include some of the basics of building self awareness as well as the major skills of leadership.

This month we will meet at David Lipscomb University's Ezell Center, room 363. We'll be buying pizza and sodas for all in attendance. Map and directions are on the following pages.

Chairman's Comments

By Doug Fleenor

If you have never heard Dan Ryan speak before, you're in for a treat. Please take the opportunity to learn from an outstanding leader in the greater Nashville area. Dan Ryan has incite that can help develop our careers as engineers. I hope you will have time to join us at David Lipscomb for this meeting. Enjoy this busy Christmas season, and remember to work smart so you can spend as much time as possible with family. SAE would like to express our gratitude to all the members, so if there is a topic you would be interested in learning more about please send your request. If you have a topic you are an expert in and would like to share your knowledge, host a tour, or put together a presentation for CE credit please get in contact with the board.

Merry Christmas to all!

Dan Ryan's Human Capital Group bio

Dan Ryan has a passion for growth and change. In his career roles, he has had the opportunity to work with firms starting from scratch, experiencing rapid growth and those going through retrenchment. These experiences enable Dan to understand and empathize with leaders facing a variety of situations.

As a Senior Consultant, Dan provides retained search for clients and he also provides individual and group development activities, with Executive Coaching, Organizational Development, Organizational Assessment, and 360 Degree Feedback being a few examples. His work in market segments such as Engineering, Architecture, IT, Life Sciences and Non-Profit serve as a context for helping leaders become more self aware and better prepared for change and growth.

Dan has earned a BS in Engineering Physics from Murray State University, an MBA from Tennessee State University, and a MEd. from Peabody College of Vanderbilt University. He has also served as an adjunct instructor for Belmont University.

Dan and his wife Gena recently celebrated their 25th anniversary. They have two sons, Daniel, a sophomore at Vandy, and Matthew, a rising high school senior. Dan is a member of Christ Community Church in Franklin, TN

When not working with his clients, Dan can be found volunteering for the Boys and Girls Club or the Boy Scouts of America. He is also a member of the board of directors for Leadership Middle Tennessee, Franklin Breakfast Rotary and the Middle Tennessee Workforce Investment Board.

Advertise with us!

For SAE's monthly meeting and speaker series, we are looking for sponsors to help offset some of the meeting costs. These meeting will include several notable speakers from around the community and from SAE International. We expect to have anywhere from 30 to 90 engineers from local universities and industry. We are looking for corporate sponsors for these events by offering companies a chance to present and discuss their products and services during the meeting. If interested, please contact SAE Vice-Chair, Kevin Line at 615-838-9217 or handykev@gmail.com for more details. SAE is also offering advertising space in the monthly newsletter.
